

Caleb Snead

255 The Preserve Drive, Athens, Georgia 30606 • CalebSnead@uga.edu • (770) 380-4692

EDUCATION

University of Georgia Athens, GA
Master of Public Health in Health Promotion & Behavior May 2025

- GPA: 4.00/4.00

Bachelor of Science in Health Promotion; Health Promotion Emphasis; Global Health Minor May 2024

- Major GPA: 3.86/4.00; Overall GPA: 3.79/4.00

Relevant Work Experience

University of Georgia, Archway Partnership Athens, GA
Student Assistant January 2022-Present

- Managed multiple projects for Archway Partnership clients across Georgia including:
 - Research and implementation assistance with a co-responder mental health project in Colquitt County
 - Assisting in organization of the Farm Worker Family Health Program, designed to provide primary healthcare services to migrant farmers and their families

University of Georgia, Institute of Gerontology Athens, GA
Research Assistant August 2022-Present

- Assists in the development and evaluation of curriculum created to deliver education on dementia risk reduction and to support persons with dementia and their care partners
- Develops programs to increase dementia education and outreach in medically underserved communities
- Coordinates with community stakeholders to examine locally identified challenges
- Mentors multiple undergraduate research assistants

University of Georgia, Fishers of Men Initiative Athens, GA
Research Assistant September 2022- Present

- Assists in the implementation and evaluation of the CDC's Diabetes Prevention Program in over 20 rural African American churches statewide
- Serves as primary point of contact for community stakeholders

American Red Cross North Georgia Region
Blood Service Transportation Specialist December 2020-August 2022

- Transported blood and/or blood products from collection sites to Red Cross Laboratories and hospital customers
- Communicated with hospitals and clinics to ensure blood is supplied as needed

Awards and Honors

President's Fulfilling the Dream Award January 2024

- Awarded annually to individuals from the Athens-Clarke County and University of Georgia communities who have made significant efforts to build bridges of unity and understanding

Presentations

International Town and Gown Association Conference Fort Collins, CO
June, 2023

- Facilitated a round table discussion with community stakeholders on the implementation and progress of a Mental Health Co-Response Model in a rural community

2023 DEI Conference: Strengthening our Community through (Rest)oration Athens, GA

- Served as a panelist to discuss creating outreach programs that promote equity and inclusion

Public Service & Outreach, Research Showcase Athens, GA

- Served on panel discussing my role as a researcher and student in distributing education to communities across Georgia

Campus & Community Involvement

College of Public Health

Inclusive Excellence Committee

- Corresponds with faculty and students to advance equity and inclusion within the College of Public Health

Health Equity Fellow

- Partners with East Point, GA to provide recommendations on best practices to address food insecurity

Public Service and Outreach (PSO) Student Scholar

- Involved in a yearlong program that provides a deeper understanding of PSO's purpose, breadth, and depth